Report on Medical Camp Attended by Students of DCS's A. R. A College of Pharmacy

Event Details

Name: Medical Camp
Date: 16th September 2018
No of Participants: 26

Introduction

On 16th September 2018, a group of students from DCS's A. R. A College of Pharmacy participated in a noteworthy medical camp. The camp was organized by a local healthcare institution and aimed to provide essential medical services and raise health awareness among the community. The students' active involvement in this camp underscored their commitment to making a positive impact on public health.

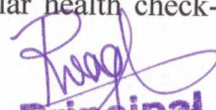

Objective

The medical camp attended by students of DCS's A.R.A College of Pharmacy had the primary objective of providing medical assistance and health education to the local community, particularly those who may have limited access to healthcare services.

Event Highlights

- 1. Medical Check-ups The participating students actively assisted healthcare professionals in conducting medical check-ups for the attendees. This included basic health assessments, vital sign measurements, and initial consultations.
- 2. Health Screenings Students were actively involved in conducting health screenings such as blood pressure measurement, blood sugar testing, and BMI calculations, helping to identify potential health issues.
- 3. Medication Counseling Pharmacy students played a vital role in medication counseling, ensuring that attendees understood the proper usage, dosage, and potential side effects of their medications.
- 4. Health Education Interactive sessions were conducted to educate participants about preventive measures, healthy lifestyle choices, and the importance of regular health check-ups.

5. Distribution of Essentials The students participated in distributing educational pamphlets and hygiene kits, which contained information about maintaining personal hygiene and leading a healthy life.

Outcomes

Participation in the medical camp yielded several meaningful outcomes:

1. Community Outreach: By actively engaging in the medical camp, students extended their knowledge and expertise to serve the local community, addressing their healthcare needs.
2. Health Awareness: Attendees gained valuable insights into their health status and received guidance on preventive measures and early intervention.
3. Skill Enhancement: Students honed their communication skills, learned to work effectively as part of a healthcare team, and gained real-world exposure.
4. Social Responsibility: The participation underscored the college's commitment to social responsibility and its role in improving public health.
5. Positive Impact: The event positively impacted the attendees, leaving them better informed and empowered to make healthier lifestyle choices.

Conclusion

The participation of students from DCS's A. R. A College of Pharmacy in the medical camp on 16th September 2018 reflects the institution's dedication to community welfare and healthcare outreach. By actively contributing to the camp's success, the students exemplified the values of empathy, compassion, and social engagement that are integral to the field of pharmacy. This experience not only enriched their practical skills but also reinforced the vital role pharmacists play in promoting public health.

Report on World Pharmacist Day

Event Details

Name: World Pharmacist Day

Date: 25th September 2018

Organized by: DCS's A.R.A College of Pharmacy

No of Participants: 31

Introduction

On 25th September 2018, DCS's A. R. A College of Pharmacy organized World Pharmacist Day on its campus. The event aimed to raise awareness about the pivotal role of pharmacists in the healthcare system and to enlighten students and faculty about the evolving responsibilities and contributions of pharmacists in patient care and public health. The Programmed was designed to bridge the gap between theoretical education and real-world pharmacy practices.

Objectives

The Pharmacist Awareness Programmed conducted by DCS's A. R. A College of Pharmacy had the following key objectives:

1. Educational Enrichment: Educate students and faculty about the diverse roles and responsibilities of pharmacists in healthcare settings.
2. Promote Career Awareness: Highlight the career opportunities available in the field of pharmacy and encourage students to explore various specializations.
3. Advocate Patient-Centric Care: Emphasize the pharmacist's role in providing patient-centric care, medication management, and public health awareness.

Conclusion

The Pharmacist Awareness Programmed organized by DCS's A.R.A College of Pharmacy exemplified the institution's commitment to providing holistic education and bridging the gap between classroom learning and practical applications. By shedding light on the evolving roles of pharmacists, the programmed empowered participants with the knowledge and inspiration to contribute meaningfully to the healthcare system.

Impact analysis: The students have expressed their happiness for organizing visit, expressed satisfaction over the events. These visit and guest lecture by industry person supported them for improving the knowledge base and motivate for higher studies. These helped the students to understand real-time appreciation and value addition. The students considered it as essential for appreciating and understanding the formulation and manufacturing, as they had already completed the theory part and formulation aspects in the college laboratory. Now they had understood real life situation of large scale preparation.

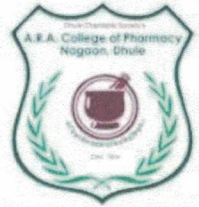

The A.R.A College of Pharmacy always strives to impart education of international standards In addition to there compliance to the North Maharashtra University approved syllabus, several initiative have been taken of sterthe growth of th estudents. As a partof our program, A R A COP also seek the guidance of industry/hospital to deliver guest lecturers to our students. As the B. Pharmacy course is largely industry oriented and industry based guest lecturers were planned. The college has taken steps to conduct industrial visits, which includes the research laboratories (animal house, maintenance and handling) medicinal and botanical gardens, pharmaceutical industries allopathic and ayurvedic products). The staff has been associated with the continuing pharmaceutical industry. This association strengthened our understanding to visualize the industry needs, which are incorporated into the teaching content delivery.

Event Details

Name: Women's Day Safety & Empowerment Taekwondo Training

Date: 6th March 2019

Organized by: DCS's A. R. A College of Pharmacy

No of Participants: 20

Introduction

On 6th March 2019, DCS's A.R.A College of Pharmacy organized a special Taekwondo training event on the occasion of International Women's Day. The event aimed to empower and promote the safety of women by providing them with self-defense skills and techniques. The training session was designed to instill confidence and create a safe environment for women, enabling them to protect themselves in challenging situations.

Objectives

The Women's Day Safety & Empowerment Taekwondo Training had the following key objectives:

1. Empowerment: Empower women by equipping them with basic self-defense skills and techniques to enhance their safety and confidence.
2. Awareness: Raise awareness about the importance of women's safety and the need for self-defense training in today's society.
3. Promote Gender Equality: Promote gender equality and women's empowerment by providing them with tools to protect themselves and assert their rights.

Event Highlights

1. Taekwondo Training by Experts Experienced Taekwondo instructors conducted the training session, teaching participants various self-defense techniques, including strikes, blocks, and evasion maneuvers. Participants were guided on the principles of using martial arts for self-defense and avoiding conflict when possible.

2. Focus on Confidence Building The training emphasized the importance of building self-confidence in women, as it plays a crucial role in personal safety. Participants were encouraged to trust their instincts, set boundaries, and assertively respond to potential threats.

3. Interactive Workshops The training included interactive workshops where participants could practice the learned techniques under the guidance of instructors. The workshops allowed participants to gain hands-on experience and build muscle memory for effective self-defense.

4. Safety Awareness Talks In addition to the physical training, safety awareness talks were conducted, addressing common safety concerns faced by women in various settings. The talks focused on identifying potential risks and adopting preventive measures.

5. Special Sessions for Vulnerable Groups Special sessions were organized for vulnerable groups, including college students, faculty, and staff, to cater to their specific safety needs and concerns.

Outcomes

The Women's Day Safety & Empowerment Taekwondo Training conducted by DCS's A.R.A College of Pharmacy resulted in several positive outcomes:

- 1. Enhanced Safety Skills: Participants acquired basic self-defense skills and techniques, improving their ability to protect themselves in challenging situations.
- 2. Increased Confidence: The training instilled confidence and a sense of empowerment in women, enabling them to face potential threats with greater assertiveness.
- 3. Awareness and Preparedness: Participants gained awareness about safety risks and the importance of being prepared to handle potential dangers effectively.

Conclusion

The Women's Day Safety & Empowerment Taekwondo Training organized by DCS's A.R.A College of Pharmacy was a successful initiative to empower women and promote their safety. By equipping women with self-defense skills and building their confidence, the event contributed to creating a more secure and gender-equal campus environment.
